PACREG Cadet Leadership School Information Sheet

Cadet students will report for in-processing at 1600 (4:00 pm) on Monday 26 December 2016. Required forms will include the CAPF-31 (Application for Special Activity), CAPF-160 (Health History), CAPF-161 (Emergency Information). All forms must be complete and properly signed. All cadets 18 or older must meet the CAP Cadet Protection requirement.

Cadets, cadre or senior members arriving via commercial airline, will be required to provide flight arrival and departure in order to have CAP transportation available. Airline, Flight number, arrival and departure times are to be emailed to Lt Col Jay Roberts, RCLS Project Officer at stonecreek01@live.com.

Graduation is planned for 0900 (9:00 am) on Saturday 31 December. Students should expect to be released by 1100 (11:00 am). It is recommended return flight arrangements be made no earlier than 1430 (2:30 pm) that day.

Billeting will be in "Troop Barracks" at Camp Murray. Students, cadre, and Senior Member staff are encouraged to bring sleeping bags with pillow or twin sheets, blanket and pillow. Those traveling via commercial airlines or not wishing to bring those items may purchase them for an additional $20.00 charge by registering for a Student Registration W Upgrade.

Meals at the Joint Base Lewis - McChord Dining Facility (DFAC) are priced on an "Ala Cart" basis. Therefore, participants will be issued $15.00 cash per day to pay for meals.

The working uniform of the day will be the Battle Dress Uniform (BDU) or the Airman Battle Dress Uniform (ABU). This is a "Winter Activity" therefore, authorized outwear for the uniform is encouraged. PT gear should include sweat pants/shirt with shorts, t-shirt and athletic shoes. The USAF Blue Uniform with Service Coat will be required as well (See Packing List for details).

Cell phones and other personal communication devices are permitted during Region Cadet Leadership School. However, all devices are to be turned-off during academic and team building activity periods.
